CAREER VISION 2016

As a part of the carrier guidance program, Amala College of Nursing organized a carrier guidance class on 16-08-2016 in collaboration with NORKA roots (Non Resident Keralites Affairs) which is the single agency authorized by the Government of India. The class was arranged for fourth-year B. Se nursing students. The resource persons were Mr. Alex and Mr. Shyju CS, the Norka trainers. The program Amala College of Nursing program was inaugurated by Dr.Rajee Raghunath, Principal, and he delivered the welcome address. The class started at 9 am. They explained in detail regarding processes of migration to various countries and the recruitment, salary benefits, and other living benefits. They shared information regarding working environment in the middle east, UK, Ireland, Canada and Australia. All information was very useful and informative for all participants. Students enjoyed the session.
